Who we are

The Wine & Spirit Education Trust (WSET) is an awarding body and registered charity devoted to the development and delivery of qualifications and courses in wines and spirits.

Our mission

Our mission is to provide accessible, best-in-class education and qualifications to inspire and empower the world's wine, spirit and sake professionals and enthusiasts.

Our credentials

We have five decades of experience designing and delivering job-relevant training and education in wines and spirits. Today we are proud to be the market leader, with our qualifications available in over 70 countries. Since our inception in 1969, over half a million individuals have completed a WSET qualification. In 2015 our efforts were recognised with a Queen's Award for Enterprise in International Trade.

WSET Awards is accredited as an awarding body by Ofqual (UK Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation), is a member of FAB (Federation of Awarding Bodies) and operates under an ISO 9001:2008 certification.

Our qualifications

In 2018/19 eight WSET qualifications were available, ranging from one-day beginner courses through to a specialist level Diploma. Most qualifications were available as both classroom and online distance learning*.
